

WSA MODERNRUINS® IS HIRING ARCHITECTS & ENGINEERS

WSA ModernRuins® – longstanding firm valued for expanding the boundaries of heritage stewardship in both practice and philosophy – is HIRING seasoned Architects & Engineers to be engaged in a spectrum of project types. Among WSA's core mission is the rediscovery of evolutionary wisdom embedded in building technologies and infrastructure that defines architecture of the past... then refining it for application to architecture of the present.

Our practice specializes principally in cultural heritage projects, which embody a spectrum of building types, communities and settings. We embrace an impassioned commitment to authenticity; innovation; cultural ties; knowledge sharing across disciplines; data-driven solutions; hands-on project development; superb client management; and timeless beauty in the final work.

Open positions are for individuals who:

- thrive in a technically and intellectually challenging professional environment;
- are self-starters;
- communicate clearly and effectively, both verbally and graphically;
- demonstrate strong skills & experience – field analysis, technical design & detailing (NOT renderings), document production, code/permit/LPC review, project mgmt.

THESE ARE NOT ENTRY LEVEL POSITIONS. An accredited A/E degree is mandatory.

ANTICIPATED SALARY RANGE $100,000-$125,000; NEGOTIABLE BASED ON SKILLS & EXP
