

What qualifies as Member News?

Please limit your news to 60 words and make sure that the subject line is entitled: APT Member News. Then send it to aptinews@apti.org.

Please make sure that you or your firm is a current member of APT. News items cannot be accepted unless they pertain to and mention a current APT individual, institutional, or corporate member.

Please note that because space is limited, we cannot accept news about members starting or completing new projects or contracts. Only two items per member will be accepted, and any late news will go in the following issue of Communiqué. Please do not include links or images.

Here are some ideas for news to share:

- awards and other kudos
- new hires
- promotions
- fellowships
- papers or talks being given at non-APT events
- new offices opened or offices being moved
- establishment of new professional firms
- grants won
- major coverage of members and/or their projects in national (not local) publications, such as the New York Times
- sponsorship of preservation events, such as a conference or workshop
- new blogs by members with the focus of the blogs

If you have any questions, please contact our editors at Mount Ida Press at info@mountidapress.com or at 518-426-5935